Academic Projects

- Currently working on a dissertation on Social Media as a tool for Protest: A Case Study of "Kiss of Love" Protest.
- Currently working on a long documentary on women bikers as part of 'Media Project' course.
- These Women in the Hills - Short Documentary on waste workers.
Conceptualised, shot and edited the film
A documentary produced as part of the course 'Working with Video II' as a team of four. The film addresses the health concerns of waste workers in the Deonar dumping ground by exploring the general dynamics within the ground. It broadly tells the story of the situation within the dumping ground, following the fire, which left families devastated not only with illness but also with the prospect of losing one's only means of livelihood.
- The Nation Wants to Know - Public Service Advertisement on censorship.
Conceptualised, shot and edited the PSA as a team of four. Produced as a part of the course 'Working with Video I', the 2.35 minute ad centres around elimination of certain issues from mainstream media by media professionals.
- Dil Khoon Ke Hamaare - Music Video.
Conceptualised, co-scripted, shot and edited the video as a part of the course 'Working with Video I'. The 6.45 minute long video—made as part of a team of four—explores the life of a queer lecturer in the context of legal striggles around Section 377.
- Worked as part of a team to script and produce a short film, 'A Sign of Hope'.
- Co-scripted and produced a Public Service Advertisement on fast food.
- Prepared a dissertation titled Digital Literacy and Age Barrier: Senior citizens and their position in the e-World as part of course requirement for Bachelors's Degree.
- Worked as the sub-editor, Reporter and Layout Artist for several editions of 'Netra', newspaper journal published by the Department of Journalism, Mass Communication and Video production, Mar Ivanios College, Thiruvananthapuram.

- Participated in several media seminars and conferences.
