Dear Sir/Madam,

Re: Application for the post of Trainee Journalist

I am interested in the 'trainee journalist' position Req #: 17000205 offered at Thomson Reuters. My resume is enclosed for your review.

The nature of works I have done over the course of my studies has prepared me for this position.

I have experience working as an intern at the Hindu. My experience working as a reporter and media cell member for several seminars and conferences during my undergraduate days is sure to be of help in performing the tasks that this post demands.

In addition to this, I am quite familiar with social media tools and have good working competency in Adobe Photoshop, Final Cut Pro and Soundtrack Pro.

Being an avid learner, I am quick to adapt and pick up new skills and tools. I work well under pressure and have good multi-tasking abilities. My flexible nature, attention to detail and passion for journalism make me a great candidate for this position.

As a fervent follower of news and events, I am keen on joining this venture with you.

Thank you for taking the time to consider this application. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours faithfully,

Amrutha K P
